

SoulShift - Educational Q&A Platform

General Questions

Practice Questions

Q1. Which of the following statements about kinetic friction is true?

- A. It is always greater than static friction.
- B. It depends on the speed of the object.
- C. It is independent of the contact area.
- D. It increases with increasing normal force.

Solution: Kinetic friction is independent of the contact area and depends only on the normal force and the coefficient of kinetic friction.

